10 OUTRAGEOUS RIDES FROM SEMA

Stretch Your Legs

While it baffles us why anyone would want to transform a Scion xB into a stretch limousine, we have to admit this thing is pretty cool-looking. Built by Cartel Customs, which is owned by import drag racer Jeremy Lookofsky, this tony stretch features rear suicide-style doors, a large television, a well-stocked bar and a black leather wrap-around sofa. Modifications to the xB's powertrain include an AEM air intake, a Cartel straight exhaust and a Strup performance header.
